INTRODUCTION.

WE have much pleasure in placing before an appreciative public another issue of our DIRECTORY, —the title of which, in keeping with its growth, we have altered from “THE BUTE COUNTY DIRECTORY” to “THE WEST COAST DIRECTORY.”

The enlargement of this edition is by the insertion of Official Lists of the surrounding districts, and a List of Householders of that plucky and rising [Argyleshire town, Oban. We are prepared to still further lengthen our cords if we are assisted to strengthen our [stakes. [The new Official List of each District can be had separately for 1d.]

For a Business Directory of the West Coast, we refer to our West Coast Illustrated Commercial Almanac, Calendar Diary and Business Directory, published at the low price of 2d.

To resist the tear and wear, to which we are glad to know the Directory, from its constant perusal, is subjected, we have supplanted the cloth-backed cardboard covers for limp cloth.

We are thankful for the increased orders for the DIRECTORY, and hope to see the advertising orders correspondingly increased in the future.

JUNE, 1883.

P. S. — The increased and urgent demand for this issue of the Directory having taken us somewhat by surprise, we have, in order to meet it, been unable to devote the time to the more careful printing that we would have liked.

THE WEST COAST ALMANAC, CALENDAR, DIARY, AND BUSINESS DIRECTORY.—Mr George Higgie, printer and publisher, Rothesay, has just issued his remarkably cheap and handy commercial almanac for the West Coast, which, besides the information contained in similar publications, has complete business directories for at least a score of towns and districts on the West Coast.—Edinburgh Courant.

“THE WEST COAST ILLUSTRATED COMMERCIAL ALMANAC FOR 1883.”—This neat little annua—published by Mr George Higgie, of Rothesay, from whose hands are issued quite a number of publications—is a handy volume. In addition to the ordinary useful information conveyed through such channels, this work, consisting of 120 pages, gives the names of the merchants and tradesmen at most of the towns and villages on the West Coast. The mass of information given appears to have been carefully selected and compiled. Besides being illustrated, it contains blank diary pages for each month in the year. It is the cheapest and best local Almanac it has been our lot to come across, and the spirited publisher is to be congratulated upon the get-up of the book. This year-book, which costs but twopence, ought to have a very wide circulation.—Argyllshire Standard.

THE WEST COAST ALMANAC AND DIRECTORY FOR 1883.—This bulky almanac contains a vast amount of useful information, besides directories for Buteshire, and a large number of towns on the West Coast. In it there is also a diary for each month of the year, and there are numerous illustrations. This almanac is published at the low price of twopence, and the publisher is Mr Geo. Higgie, printer, Bridge Street, Rothesay.—Greenock Advertiser.

THE WEST COAST ILLUSTRATED COMMERCIAL ALMANAC AND BUSINESS DIRECTORY, published by George Higgie, Rothesay, is a very useful production. It contains business directories of all the townships and villages on the West Coast, from Ullapool and Stornoway to Largs and Fairlie. The names of the residents in all these places are given, with details of the various public boards. It also contains a useful diary, with the memorable days marked, as well as information on all subjects of general interest.—Glasgow News.

THE WEST COAST ILLUSTRATED COMMERCIAL ALMANAC includes, besides much miscellaneous information, business directories for Buteshire, Skelmordie, Largs, Hunter's Quay, Dunoon, Tarbert, Ardrishaig, Oban, the Isle of Mull, Skye, and other towns and districts on the west coast.—Scotsman.

“THE WEST COAST ILLUSTRATED COMMERCIAL ALMANAC” (Rothesay: Geo. Higgie) is overstocked with advertisements, and the illustrations though interesting, are not local.—Daily Review,

October 16th, 1882.

Gentlemen,—I have much pleasure in testifying to the good result to be obtained through the use of your "Liebig's Extract of Meat and Malt Wine." I have used it with considerable benefit in the case of my own child, and consider it a very valuable dietetic agent.

I remain, Gentlemen,
Yours respectfully,

Gentlemen,—I have used your "Liebig's Extract of Meat and Malt Wine" (Coleman's) and can bear testimony to its value in all cases of general and stomach debility. Where there is waste of body—as in the period of convalescence from illness of a wasting character—I believe it to be an invaluable remedy. I shall certainly prescribe it extensively.

I am, Gentlemen, yours truly,
