

Common Military Abbreviations

If you are researching a war memorial or your ancestor's service during the two World Wars you may come across abbreviations with which you may be unfamiliar. This guide is solely a list of these abbreviations and is intended to be used in tandem with other Scottish Military Research Group research guides, which will give more detail to the units and ranks themselves.

There are three sections. Firstly Units, secondly Ranks and lastly Medals and Awards. The abbreviations are listed alphabetically and cover all three armed services and civilian organisations involved in war work.

The list is by no means exhaustive, so if you find an abbreviation we haven't listed here, please contact us.

Units

This list contains many non-Scottish regiments. During the World Wars it was common for Scots to serve in non-Scottish regiments and vice-versa. They are included here because they are commonly found on war memorials, in war diaries and in regimental histories.
